SECURE ROOTS TERMLY UPDATES 25-26

Secure Roots will deliver termly safeguarding briefings to ensure that all Designated Safeguarding Leads (DSLs) and Deputy DSLs (DDSLs) remain fully informed and confident in their roles. These briefings will provide regular updates on changes to safeguarding legislation, local authority guidance, and emerging risks, in line with Keeping Children Safe in Education (KCSIE) 2025.

In addition to safeguarding updates, each session will include key information on attendance, behaviour, and personal development, recognising that these areas are closely linked to the safety and wellbeing of children.

Secure Roots will support DSLs, DDSs, Attendance champions, Behaviour advocates and other leaders in maintaining a holistic approach to safeguarding,

Leaders will be equipped to identify concerns early, advise staff effectively, and promote a culture where all pupils feel safe, supported, and ready to learn.
